Finding Comfort and Strength

In the gospel for the 6th Sunday of Easter Year A, Jesus speaks to his disciples about the coming of the Holy Spirit. He tells them that he will ask the Father to send them another Advocate, the Spirit of truth, who will be with them forever. This Advocate will teach them all things and remind them of everything Jesus has said to them.

As Catholics, we believe in the Holy Trinity – the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit is the third person of the Trinity, and it is through the Holy Spirit that we receive the grace and strength to live our lives according to God's will.

Jesus' promise of the Holy Spirit is a great source of comfort and hope for us as Catholics. The Holy Spirit is not just an abstract concept, but a real and present force in our lives. When we receive the Sacraments, particularly Baptism and Confirmation, we are filled with the Holy Spirit and become part of the Body of Christ.

Finally, Jesus tells his disciples that he will not leave them as orphans, but will come to them. This is a powerful reminder that even when we feel alone or abandoned, God is always with us. Through the Holy Spirit, we are connected to God and to one another as members of the Body of Christ.

Encontrar consuelo y fuerza

En el evangelio del VI Domingo de Pascua Año A, Jesús habla a sus discípulos de la venida del Espíritu Santo. Les dice que pedirá al Padre que les envíe otro Consolador, el Espíritu de verdad, que estará con ellos para siempre. Este Consolador les enseñará todas las cosas y les recordará todo lo que Jesús les ha dicho.

Como católicos, creemos en la Santísima Trinidad: el Padre, el Hijo y el Espíritu Santo. El Espíritu Santo es la tercera persona de la Trinidad, y es a través del Espíritu Santo que recibimos la gracia y la fuerza para vivir nuestras vidas de acuerdo con la voluntad de Dios.

La promesa de Jesús del Espíritu Santo es una gran fuente de consuelo y esperanza para nosotros como católicos. El Espíritu Santo no es solo un concepto abstracto, sino una fuerza real y presente en nuestras vidas. Cuando recibimos los Sacramentos, particularmente el Bautismo y la Confirmación, nos llenamos del Espíritu Santo y nos convertimos en parte del Cuerpo de Cristo.

Finalmente, Jesús les dice a sus discípulos que no los dejará huérfanos, sino que vendrá a ellos. Este es un poderoso recordatorio de que incluso cuando nos sentimos solos o abandonados, Dios siempre está con nosotros. A través del Espíritu Santo, estamos conectados con Dios y el uno con el otro como miembros del Cuerpo de Cristo.
