Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

The food God provides is unique and special. Take the manna God provided in the desert. Twice Moses says in our first reading that this food was unknown to their ancestors. The food that Jesus provides was also unknown to anyone's ancestors and it is even more special, for it is Christ's own Body and Blood. Saint Paul reminds us that we participate in the in the Body and Blood of Christ when we share the Eucharist, and Jesus tells us that whoever does so remains in him and he in us. As we listen to the word of God, let us listen for the many ways God feeds us.

- Keep doors closed to maintain indoor temperatures.
- Adjust thermostats in unused areas when possible.
- Switch off or unplug equipment when not needed.

These small efforts can significantly lower utility costs and support our commitment to good stewardship of both our parish and the environment. Thank you for your cooperation and support.

Solemnidad del Santísimo Cuerpo y Sangre de Cristo

Los alimentos que Dios proporciona son únicos y especiales. Tome el maná que Dios dio en el desierto. Dos veces Moisés dice en nuestra primera lectura que este alimento era desconocido para sus antepasados. El alimento que Jesús proporciona también era desconocido para los antepasados de cualquiera y es aún más especial, porque es el propio Cuerpo y la propia Sangre de Cristo. San Pablo nos recuerda que participamos en el Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo cuando compartimos la Eucaristía, y Jesús nos dice que quien lo hace permanece en él y él en nosotros. Al escuchar la palabra de Dios, escuchemos las muchas maneras en que Dios nos alimenta.
