Detachment from Riches

In the Gospel reading for the 28th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year B, Jesus encounters a rich young man who asks how to inherit eternal life. Jesus tells him to sell all he has, give to the poor, and follow Him. This is a difficult command, but it highlights the challenge of detachment from worldly riches.

The young man is saddened because he has many possessions. Jesus' words show us that clinging to wealth can hinder our relationship with God. True discipleship requires letting go of material attachments and trusting fully in Jesus.

Jesus assures His disciples that while it is hard for the rich to enter the Kingdom of God, nothing is impossible with God. This gives us hope. If we trust in God and seek His help, we can overcome the obstacles that keep us from following Jesus fully.

World Mission Sunday

Why World Mission Sunday Matters World Mission Sunday, observed on October 20th this year, is not just another Sunday; it is a powerful reminder of our call to be missionaries. The collection taken up on this day is unique as it is mandated by the Code of Canon Law and is essential for the survival and growth of the Church in mission territories.

These funds support the pastoral and evangelizing work of the Church, including building churches, providing healthcare and education, and training future priests and religious. In places where resources are scarce, your generosity makes a profound difference. As we reflect on the theme "Go and invite everyone to the banquet," let us remember that our participation and support help invite countless souls to the feast of God's love.

El Desapego de las Riquezas

En la lectura del Evangelio del 28.º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario Año B, Jesús se encuentra con un joven rico que le pregunta cómo heredar la vida eterna. Jesús le dice que venda todo lo que tiene, se lo dé a los pobres y lo siga. Es un mandato difícil, pero resalta el desafío del desapego de las riquezas mundanas.

El joven está triste porque tiene muchas posesiones. Las palabras de Jesús nos muestran que aferrarse a las riquezas puede obstaculizar nuestra relación con Dios. El verdadero discipulado requiere desprenderse de los apegos materiales y confiar plenamente en Jesús.

Jesús asegura a sus discípulos que, si bien es difícil para los ricos entrar en el Reino de Dios, nada es imposible para Dios. Esto nos da esperanza. Si confiamos en Dios y buscamos su ayuda, podemos superar los obstáculos que nos impiden seguir a Jesús plenamente.

Domingo Mundial de las Misiones

Por qué es importante el Domingo Mundial de las Misiones El Domingo Mundial de las Misiones, que se celebra este año el 20 de octubre, no es un domingo más; es un poderoso recordatorio de nuestro llamado a ser misioneros. La colecta que se realiza en este día es única, ya que está ordenada por el Código de Derecho Canónico y es esencial para la supervivencia y el crecimiento de la Iglesia en los territorios de misión.

Estos fondos apoyan la labor pastoral y evangelizadora de la Iglesia, que incluye la construcción de iglesias, la prestación de atención médica y educación, y la formación de futuros sacerdotes y religiosos. En lugares donde los recursos son escasos, su generosidad hace una profunda diferencia. Mientras reflexionamos sobre el tema "Vayan e inviten a todos al banquete", recordemos que nuestra participación y apoyo ayudan a invitar a innumerables almas a la fiesta del amor de Dios.
