God Is Always at Work

Easter is the most important feast in the Catholic liturgical calendar, as it celebrates the Resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead. Through his death and Resurrection, Jesus has triumphed over sin and death, and offers us the hope of new life and salvation.

The readings for Easter Vigil and Easter Sunday remind us of God's goodness, power, and saving work throughout history. From the Creation Story to the Exodus from Egypt, God has been at work, leading his people to freedom and new life. In the Epistle reading, St. Paul exhorts us to die to sin and live for God, emphasizing the importance of baptism and faith in Jesus. And in the Gospel reading, we hear the amazing news of Jesus' Resurrection, which brings hope and new life to all who believe. -young-catholics.com

Dios Siempre Está Trabajando

© J.S. Paluch Co., Inc.

La Pascua es la fiesta más importante del calendario litúrgico católico, ya que celebra la Resurrección de Jesucristo de entre los muertos. A través de su muerte y resurrección, Jesús triunfó sobre el pecado y la muerte, y nos ofrece la esperanza de una nueva vida y salvación.

Las lecturas de la Vigilia Pascual y del Domingo de Resurrección nos recuerdan la bondad, el poder y la obra salvadora de Dios a lo largo de la historia. Desde la historia de la creación hasta el éxodo de Egipto, Dios ha estado obrando, guiando a su pueblo a la libertad y a una nueva vida. En la lectura de la Epístola, San Pablo nos exhorta a morir al pecado y vivir para Dios, enfatizando la importancia del bautismo y la fe en Jesús. Y en la lectura del Evangelio, escuchamos la sorprendente noticia de la Resurrección de Jesús, que trae esperanza y nueva vida a todos los que creen. -young-catholics.com
